1. Intro:
   1.1. You've heard old soldiers compare their battle scars & stories of war when they get together. When we arrive at our heavenly home, I'm sure we will tell of the goodness & faithfulness of God, who brought us through every trial along the way.
      1.1.1. Now, can you imagine being singled out as the only one to have never experienced sorrow?
      1.1.2. During the Amer Civil War, at the battle of Lookout Mountain, a surgeon asked a soldier where he was hurt. The wounded soldier replied, “Right near the top of the mountain”.
      1.1.3. He was not thinking of his gaping wound but was only remembering that he had won the ground near the top of the mountain.
      1.1.4. In the end God will examine your life not for medals, diplomas, or degrees, but for battle scars.¹ (scars of service)
   1.2. Outline: 3 Accomplishments; 3 Appeals; 3 Requests; 3 Problem People; 3 Promises; 3 Important Words.

   2.1. 3 ACCOMPLISHMENTS! (6-8)
   2.2. [1] I have fought the good fight – I've done the best in my life’s contest.
      2.2.1. At the height of WWII, Protestant theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer was imprisoned for taking a stand against Hitler. Yet he continued to urge fellow believers to resist Nazi tyranny. A group of Christians, believing that Hitler was the Antichrist, asked Bonhoeffer, “Why do you expose yourself to all this danger? Jesus will return any day, and all your work and suffering will be for nothing.” Bonhoeffer replied, “If Jesus returns tomorrow, then tomorrow I’ll rest from my labor. But today I have work to do. I must continue the struggle until it’s finished.”²
   2.3. [2] I have finished the race – I’ve faithfully followed the course the Lord set before me.
   2.4. [3] I have kept the faith – I’ve maintained the sound doctrine of Christianity.
      2.4.1. This isn’t Paul boasting of his accomplishments, but instead a confident reflection of his life & ministry.
      2.4.2. Here’s what the grace of God has produced in me!

2.7.2. This is Paul's “Anchor Aweigh” speech - "Weigh" comes from the archaic word meaning to heave, hoist or raise. "Aweigh" means that that action has been completed. The anchor is aweigh when it is pulled from the bottom. This event is duly noted in the ship's log.
2.7.3. Paul had his preliminary hearing before Nero, & was expecting the final one. It wouldn't be crucifixion, as roman citizens were not crucified.
2.7.3.1. If the death penalty was demanded it would be decapitation, hence the figurative ref. to a drink offering being poured out.

2.8.4. Vince Lombardi said, "The quality of a man's life is in direct proportion to his commitment to excellence, regardless of his chosen field or endeavor.... I firmly believe that any man's finest hour -- his greatest fulfillment to all he holds dear -- is that moment when he has worked his heart out in a good cause and lies exhausted on the field of battle, victorious."
2.8.5. High in the Alps is a monument raised in honor of a faithful guide who perished while ascending a peak to rescue a stranded tourist. Inscribed on that memorial stone are these words: HE DIED CLIMBING. [May it be said of us Christian!]
